COMEDY AT YOUR VENUE

DON'T WORRY ABOUT A THING

We handle all the nitty gritty so you can do what you do best: run your incredible venue. Real Terrible Productions book the comedians, organise the layout of the show and handle the marketing.

OUR MARKETING

We are a firm believer in pairing online marketing with traditional marketing strategies. That's why we do Facebook ads, and put up posters at universities. We send email blasts, and we hand out flyers. This combination of marketing strategies returns the maximum yield, and creates the best nights!

OPEN MICS

A fun night of both exciting new comedians and experienced comedians trying new material. With experienced MCs guiding the night, open mics are a crowd favorite.

PRO NIGHTS

Experienced comedians strutting their best stuff in a great hour and a half show. Always a relaxed and professional show

NEW
